ACCOLADE

FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

LIFE

dynamic emerging into space today
tomorrow into the Infinite one year of it
this year
our year
is such a precious thing
this inalienable right to unriddle the plenum
to reap the whirlwind ever reviewing ever returning to humble beginnings
and setting forth to do it all once more

CE SERVICE SERVICE

PRODUCT

Cuisine designed to please the palate as well as the purse and topped off with a cheery smile--our regular menu, served up by Mrs. Barbara Roberson and Mrs. Katherine Williams.

The best argument against automation in the office--our own Mrs. Alt. And those phone calls--! How shall we number the hours....

Ever paint yourself into a corner, saw off the limb you were sitting on, or--? Our able maintenance men, Ed Muldoon and Wallace Healey, pictured in just one of a work-day's frustrating moments.

POISED. "Are you on the level?" Judy Gill and Skip Giesting in one of life's little ups and downs.

ATTRACTIVE. "Who's resisting? My hand's stuck!" Pat Kelleher is drawn into the magnetic field of Jim R. Freiburger.

NOTABLE. In post offices throughout the country, Jim Still and Janice Ottenweller prepare for a quick get-away.

GIFTED. "Wowee! Whose li'l ol' sockam I going into?" Santa Blaising gingerly sorts Mary Lou Weaver from his pack.

PROMISING. "Tee Hee! So what if it IS a trifle big? Who am I to refuse one of the British Crown jewels?" Lynn Datzman and Ron Fritz in a moment of madness.

H. R. M. Mary Jane

Time Was...

The theme of the first Junior-Senior Prom was appropriately carried out by a sundial, placed in the center of the floor with ivy and small daisies entwining the base. As the guests entered the flowered-arrayed Cutter's Chalet on the evening of May 19, the sounds of Dick Brown's Ensemble echoed throughout.

From nine till twelve they lived in a "prom dreamland", thinking only of the present. The dancing was interrupted only by the highlight of the evening, the crowning of Mary Jane Bradley as the Prom Queen of 1962

OUR ATHLETES . . .

Fr. Edmund, Mrs. Schauer, Mr. Schauer, Mr. Rosenthal, and Fr. Conan reflect on the words of Coach Gaughn.

The Second Annual Athletic Awards Banquet was held in Luer's Cafeteria on May 1.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Richard Rosenthal, former All-American at Notre Dame, and Fort Wayne Piston. In his speech Mr. Rosenthal stressed the need of a strong character as well as a strong body in athletics.

Awards were given to varsity, reserve, and freshman players. As a special event of the evening, Mike Burns was presented the Most Valuable Player Award in basketball, and Joe Lebrato the M.V.P. Award in football.

To honor students who maintained the honor roll four consecutive times, a scholastic awards banquet was held on May 10 in Luers Cafeteria.

Monsignor Joseph Crowley, editor of OUR SUNDAY VISITOR, served as guest speaker. In his address Monsignor emphasized the need of a desire for learning, will power, and cooperation.

Like knights of old who received armor at their investing ceremonies, so were our Knights presented with monograms symbolizing achievement.

Msgr. Feltes, Msgr. Conroy, and Mrs. McArdle enjoy the comments of Msgr. Crowley.

GRADUATION HIGHLIGHTS

According to definition, graduation is "the act of completing a course of study in a school". But graduation entails much more than is implied. Accompanying the graduation are retreats, exams, Senior Class Day, and the Baccalaureate Mass and Breakfast.

The class of '62 went through this age-old tradition, but will always be a part of Bishop Luers.

Another first in our school and the climax of a high school career; Bishop Pursley presents the first diploma to Sheila Gerardot.

An important day in the final weeks before graduation was the senior retreat, with Fr. Norman emphasizing his point.

Following the retreat, seniors diligently prepared for final exams, as demonstrated by Sandy Gitter.

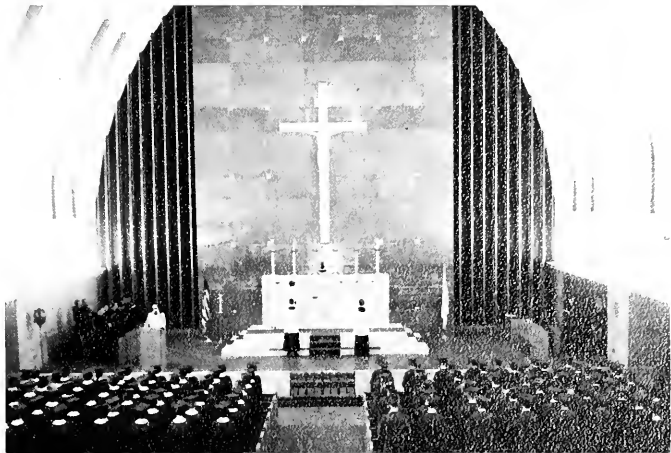

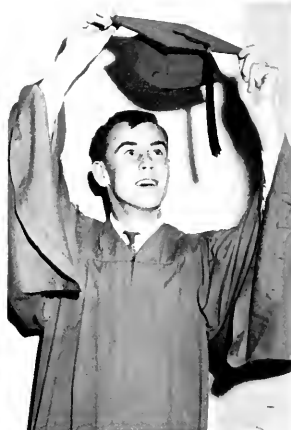

The end of exams brings joy to the seniors, and they live it up and entertain for the Senior Class Day Program. L. to R.: J. Bush, M. Burns, D. McKay, D. Brodrick.

The head table at the Baccalaureate Breakfast. L. to R.: Fr. Clyde, Fr. Brian, Fr. Conan, Msgr. Conroy, Msgr. Feltes, Fr. Gollner, Fr. Edmund.

One of the more serious events of the seniors' last days was the Baccalaureate Mass.

Preparations for graduation were climaxed by the dress rehearsal. Above, T. Kitch and S. Ottenweller adjust each other's tie, and J. Wall decides how to wear his cap.

The first graduation exercises of Bishop Luers were held in the school auditorium on the evening of June 3, 1962.

The Most Rev. Leo A. Pursley conferred the diplomas and awards, and was assisted by the Very Rev. J. William Lester, Superintendent of Diocesan Schools.

The Valedictory and Salutatory were given by Dan Brodrick and Connie Kaminski.

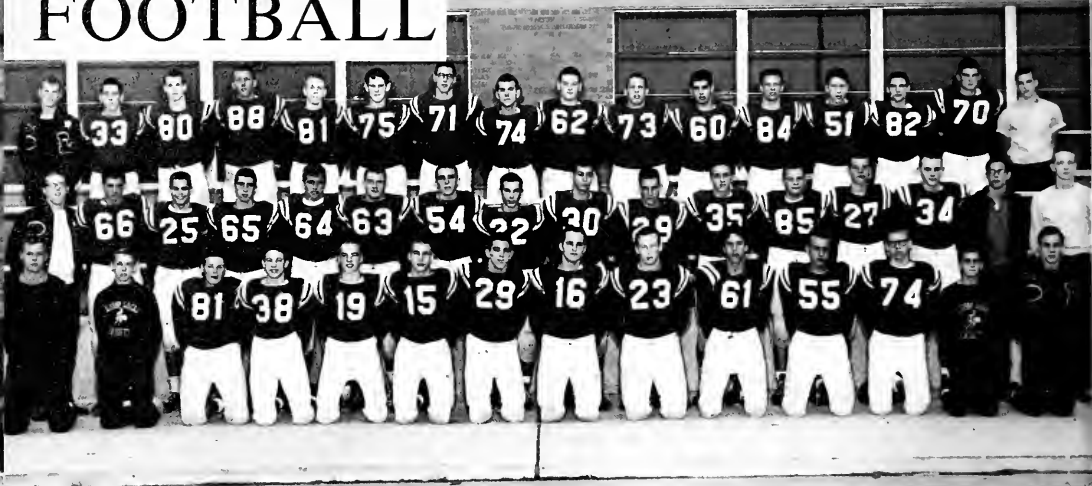

Awards and scholarships were presented, and Kay Steinacker, Lucia Talarico, and Sandy Worman were recognized for four year perfect attendance.

This year the mighty Luers football squad got off to a dynamic start with a Jamboree victory against North Side, highly rated in the pre-season. The glory was short-lived-just four days to be exact, until the first scheduled game which was against South Side. After three quarters of tremendous defense, the Archers finally broke through, handing the Knights their first loss in the City Series and of the gridiron season. The next two games in succession, with South Bend St. Joseph and Roger Bacon, Cincinnati, were also dropped. But Luers came storming back to the city to meet the Trojans of Elmhurst. The Knights were too much for the Trojans and overpowered them for their first City Series victory of the season. This glory was temporary, too, as the next three games, with Culver, Central Catholic, and Chesterton were also defeats for the Knights. But these set-backs could have led up to only one thing-the big City Series battle with the Central Tigers. Luers was slated as the "underdogs" as usual, but to the astonishment of the fans, tamed the Tigers for the second time in their two meetings. From the momentum gained with this triumph, the Knights were able to put down the New Haven Bulldogs the following week. These final victories enabled the Knights to finish the season in the Reign of Glory with which they started.

All things must have a beginning and an end. The seniors have reached the end of their high school careers, but they have the future, a new beginning to look forward to.

This new phase of life will be as exciting and unknowing as was the span of life they entered four years ago. The underclassmen still have many rungs on their high school ladders to climb, but are anticipating the new experiences and fun that each new school year brings.

We extend congratulations to the seniors and wish them the very best in whatever they do; to the underclassmen we hope for continued success.
